Lecture Given at the Angels Opera House, Tuesday, by Virgil O. Stickler, C. S.

A very attentive and interested audience filled the opera house on Tuesday evening to listen to the excellent and inspiring lecture on Christian Science by Mr. Virgil O. Stickler, of New York City. Mr. Stickler said that he is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Mother Church, and is a regular speaker. We print his lecture in full below, given Wednesday morning, when he was invited to deliver it by Mr. Frank Yock, secretary of the Port Angeles Improvement Association.

You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.

It is recorded in the 8th Chapter of John's Gospel that when Jesus was in the world he said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." In all of the Bible there is no greater promise of importance than this, and yet the Master speaks to us of this promise as if it were a common thing. Perhaps the reason for this is the lack of faith among the people of to-day, that is, their failure to understand the word "truth" as the absolute, the divine, the eternal, the unchanging. The people do not understand that the truth is a thing that answers to all conditions, that it is the fulness of knowledge, the revelation of all things, that it is the reality of all that we believe. The people do not understand that the truth is a force that can move the mountains, that it is the power that can change the world. The people do not understand that the truth is a thing that answers to all conditions, that it is the fulness of knowledge, the revelation of all things, that it is the reality of all that we believe. The people do not understand that the truth is a force that can move the mountains, that it is the power that can change the world. The city council has appointed a board of three engineers to plan the sewer system for the East End of the city. The engineers have been appointed by the city council and are now working on the plans for the sewer system. The plans will include practically the entire East End of the city, and it is expected that the work will be started immediately.

A Number of Bitter Pills Had to the Laboring People of the State.

Olympia, March 9—[With the legislative session in progress, many bills have been introduced in both houses of the state legislature, some of which will have a direct bearing on the lives of the citizens. One bill, introduced by Rep. G. W. Wilson, of Seattle, would provide for the establishment of a state board of education. The bill was introduced in response to public sentiment that there was a need for a more effective system of public instruction in the state. The bill was well received by the legislators and continued to be debated."

The session ended on a political note, with the passage of the budget and the adjournment of the legislature. The meeting was characterized by a lack of political dissension and a general feeling of satisfaction with the work of the session.

The budget was passed on a voice vote, and the session adjourned at the close of the legislative session. The adjournment of the session was greeted with general satisfaction by the legislators and the public.

The report of the legislators contains the political tendencies of the state, which are reflected in the budget and the adjournment of the session. The legislature has shown a strong inclination to support the incumbent administration and to resist any effort to change the political status quo. The budget is characterized by a lack of political dissension and a general feeling of satisfaction with the work of the session.

The Branch Store will have the same lines, sell at the same prices, and extend the same service that has made the Owl Drug Store so popular with the buying public.

We would also announce that we have engaged the services of Mr. E. E. Eubanks, a pharmacist of more than 25 years continuous experience in the drug business.

J. V. Cowen, operating a pharmacy on Fourth Street, sold out in 1899 and moved to this city to engage in real estate and general contracting. The business was purchased by G. R. Cowen, who was then put in charge of the store. In 1901, the business was sold to J. V. Cowen, who continued the business until his death in 1920. Since then, the business has been operated by his son, J. V. Cowen, Jr., and his daughter, Mrs. J. V. Cowen, and her husband, J. V. Cowen, Sr.

BROWN & HAMILTON, operators, have purchased a parcel of land on First Street, and will build a four-story building on it. The business will be located on the ground floor and will be used for the sale of groceries, drugs, and other goods.
